

Insurance Guidance Built For Museums

Protecting collections, preserving legacy, and supporting responsible stewardship.

Museum insurance should be more than a once-a-year transaction. It should be an ongoing advisory partnership that reflects the realities of collections stewardship, public engagement, governance responsibility, and long-term institutional sustainability.

The Challenge Museums Face

Museums manage unique and often irreplaceable collections, historic facilities, traveling and loaned exhibitions, and complex public exposure. Yet many institutions are insured through generic nonprofit programs that leave leadership uncertain about coverage, valuation, and risk.

The Granite Insurance Difference

Granite Insurance serves as a trusted guide for museum leadership — combining empathy, specialization, and advocacy. We understand what is truly at stake and align insurance strategy with your mission, governance standards, and long-term vision.

OUR MUSEUM CENTERED APPROACH

- In-depth risk reviews tailored to collections, exhibitions, facilities, and programming
- Carrier advocacy with insurers experienced in museums and cultural institutions
- Workers' compensation and experience modification guidance
- Clear, practical explanations for boards and leadership teams
- Proactive advisory partnership beyond renewal season

When Museums Partner with Granite

Leadership gains clarity, boards gain confidence, premiums stabilize, and institutions are positioned to protect their legacy for generations.

HOW OUR PROCESS WORKS

1. CONNECT

Talk with an advisor who understands museum governance, operations, and mission.

2. CUSTOMIZE

Receive a tailored insurance program built around your collections, facilities, and exposures.

3. CONFIDENTLY OPERATE

Focus on preservation and education while we manage risk and coverage.
